Dear Parents and Carers

New Arrivals Ambassador Scheme

I am pleased to inform you that your son/daughter has been selected to be part of the 'New Arrivals Ambassador Scheme'. The scheme, organised by Hampshire Services, part of Hampshire County Council. It is a brand new peer mentoring programme designed to support the needs of pupils when transitioning into a new school.

Nominated pupils will be given training, preparing them to be an ambassador and mentor supporting our new year 7 pupils attending Osborne School next year.

Students will receive the following training events led by Claire Barker:-

Wednesday 20 June 2018 - Two introduction sessions in school explaining the programme and developing the skills to be a mentor

Wednesday 27 June 2018 - The New Arrivals Ambassador Scheme Conference. Meeting the Year 7 pupils and start of mentoring scheme.

If your child is interested in the Ambassador Scheme, please complete the reply slip attached and return to me as soon as possible.
