Dear Parents and Carers

Prison! Me! No Way! Project

I am writing to you, as on Friday 22nd March at 2pm, we have invited the volunteers from Prison! Me! No Way! into school, to give us a presentation on prison life. Prison! Me! No-Way! is a national educational charity with a core aim of raising awareness among young people about the causes, consequences and penalties of crime. Their programmes are designed to help 8 to 18 year olds from all walks of life and cultural backgrounds. You can find further information on their website:

<https://www.pmnw.co.uk/>

The presentation will be delivered by 2 ex-prison officers, who have 50 years' experience within the prison service between them. They will talk to our young people about what happens if people make the wrong life choices and end up in prison. They will show and tell the size and layout of a prison cell and also prison items, such as the clothing inmates have to wear. The ex-prison officers will talk about experiences they have had to deal with and the different types of people that end up in prison. The presentations are not designed to be shocking, but by the nature of the prison environment, are always thought provoking.

We have chosen classes and pupils that we feel will not only understand, but also engage in the presentation.

Please can I ask that you complete the consent form below and hand it back into the office before Friday 8th March 2019.

If you do have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely

Marc Bernard
Deputy Head teacher
