

Chapter 3

School

We are on our way to school and they decided to go to school. There is no teacher? Says zombie bee bop. Yeah, says zombie 2.

“Hello guys, come and take a seat. Today we are going to be learning about why we don’t kill anyone”.

“You could get arrested and you could get arrested” says the teacher. The zombies didn't listen to the teacher and went out of the classroom. The police arrived the school and found a bomb and decided to kill all the zombies. Once all that was done, I was not happy about how all the zombies kept on coming. One after another. We closed the school down and we tried to get all the zombies out. And they kept on coming in. so we found a way to make it even worse, they pulled the fire alarm down and it was so loud. It was so loud and everyone escaped to go home. And the story will be ending now.
